

Courage Over Complacency

"Lord, when left to myself, I could be tempted and even routine in displaying a greedy heart. I desire to rely more on You for a heart of gratitude. Sometimes I come with an agenda. I pray for more courage entering life's circumstances with a heart of abandon. I desire to respond to Your will and not my fleshly yearnings. Sometimes I work ahead of Your plans, move away from Your plans, and even ignore Your plans because I fear people over loving You. Please forgive me. Rather than giving nothing up, I want help holding nothing back for the sake of Your kingdom. Please give me a fresh perspective today. Please give me renewed strength, pure motivations, and Courage over Complacency."

©2022 Annie Wolf

Prayer based on:

John 12:1-8