

Grace Over Guilt

"Lord, You are my pace setter, I don't want to rush through life missing Your fellowship and blessings. You make me stop at quiet intervals and I'm thankful for this providence. You know what's best for me. You call me to places of stillness. Please help me to sit with You and be content. Your guidance is peace. Please establish the work of my hands. There are many to do's on my list, yet I will not fret. You keep me in balance. I desire my steps in Your timing. Please help me not fall into the hands of the world with its deceptive temptations. You prepare my mind with refreshing thoughts of You and Your purposes. Help me stay fixed on You as I go about the work You've set out for me. Sometimes my body feels weary from the many mouths and hands that need serving. I trust You'll help me serve within my portion and in my gifts. Please stretch me beyond comfortable levels. Left to myself, I might stay in a small bubble. You are my strength. I want to serve with joy, overflowing to those You've put on my various paths. I desire to work, serve and worship keeping Your pace and dwelling in Your house forever."

©2022 Annie Wolf

Prayer based on:

Psalm 23