Balancing Priorities

In economic thought, the 'opportunity cost' of making decisions connects to planned benefits received. This is different than giving up something for preferences we choose. God tells us through the Apostle Paul in his epistle to the Galatians 6:7, "Do not be deceived: God is not mocked, for whatever one sows that will he also reap."

When people make determinations related to use of time, allocation of money or development of ability, they typically match choices with the driving motivations of behavior. Balancing priorities is not only driven by personal characteristics, but by the importance placed on desired outcomes.

It's true that hardwired personality traits that make up psychological and social tendencies paired with parental influence, along with Spiritual guidance, determine most of the inclinations that motivate us on how we approach life's decisions. Today, options are available for unprecedented selection.

Beyond mere psychology, we understand our battle with our sinful flesh, recognizing our need to repent of inappropriate allocations. Only God's grace can sort through the chaos of our poor decisions. We replace harmony with our Father for temptations to be like God, which bring disharmony. This reality is most obvious in how we often fail to keep God as first among earthly priorities and how life's priorities blur our vision of our Father's. We fail to balance decisions in faithfulness to the Giver of all good things.

Grace has forgiven our failures through the cross and Christ's Spirit comforts and empowers us to realign priorities to reflect the primary purpose of life; to honor God first and share His kingdom on Earth.

You can reflect this balance in your last will and testament, estate trusts or beneficiary designations. Including a witness to faith and support for the Lord's work in these plans, we validate our priority's balance to honor God, who Created, Redeemed and Sustains our lives, even as we desire to bless our children and our children's children.

Stephen Ministers: The After People

People often ask, “What exactly is a Stephen Minister?” One way to put it is that Stephen Ministers are the After People.

Stephen Ministers are there:

- ... after the phone call you hoped you'd never get.
- ... after the funeral, when everyone has left and the emotions you've held at bay come crashing in on you.
- ... after the relationship falls apart and the bottom falls out of your life.
- ... after the doctor says, “I'm sorry, but there's nothing more we can do.”
- ... after the nursing home director shakes your hand and says, “Welcome to your new home.”
- ... after the last child honks the horn, waves, and drives away—and the house suddenly seems empty.
- ... after the gavel comes down, the handcuffs go on, and your loved one is led away.
- ... after the baby arrives, demanding more of you than you ever dreamed possible.
- ... after you find a pink slip with your final paycheck.
- ... after your family and friends have heard your story one too many times, but you still need to talk it out.

Stephen Ministers are the After People. They are ready to come alongside you—or your friends, neighbors, coworkers, or relatives—and provide comfort and support for as long after as needed.

The Gospel of Matthew

September 8 at 8:45 am in the Church Library.

The Gospel of Matthew proclaims the life of Jesus as the climax of the Bible's story and human history. God's promised deliverance from sin and death arrived in human flesh in the person of Jesus. This gospel reveals Jesus as the long-awaited fulfillment of Old Testament prophecies and the expectations of God's chosen people for a Savior and King.

1 Thessalonian

September 8 at 10:10 am in the Church Library.

In 51 A.D., Paul ended his first visit to Thessalonica to flee for his life. He did not have the time to fully instruct the new Christians there, who had many questions about how to live faithfully in the time between their day and the return of Jesus. Paul wrote them twice to instruct them how to do that. We, too, live in such "in between" times, so these letters will help us live faithfully until Jesus returns.

The Parables of Jesus —Women's Bible Study

September 10 from 6:30 pm - 8:00 pm in the TPC.

We will begin a four-week on the 2nd and 4th Tuesdays on the month study of four of Jesus' Parables. The parable was Jesus' favorite teaching tool. Someone defined a parable as an "earthly story with a heavenly meaning." Each parable has one central point of comparison. Jesus told parables to help his hearers to understand the Biblical message that He wanted them to understand regarding His Kingdom and His purpose.

Each attendee will receive a booklet containing the four lessons. Questions and Bible readings are a part of each lesson's preparation. These help to answer the points of reference for each parable. Ruth Ann Endicott will lead the class, but welcomes participation from all who attend. We will close each study with prayer. This allows anyone to share and together we can bring our concerns, health issues, etc. before our loving Lord.

Adult Forum with Pastor Teuscher

Sundays at 8:40 am in the Fellowship Hall.

Life has never been more complicated. Even though the toys and gadgets that we surround ourselves with have gotten smaller, our problems seem to have gotten bigger. Loneliness, fear, worry and temptation have never been greater. So, how do we handle these ancient giants who still menace us in our modern world?

Look at David who as a mere shepherd boy faced a 9&1/2-foot giant of his own – Goliath. He knew that he didn't have to face this monster on his own. He knew the battle was in the Lord's hands and that God would deliver Goliath into his little hands.

Join us as we learn how to win the battle with our giants and live victoriously over such emotional/spiritual giants as fear, worry, failure, etc. with the power of God's Word. We will identify and define 12 giants that can discourage us Christians. Remember, God has promised that He will never leave you nor forsake you!

The following is a summary of financial activity for Risen Savior Lutheran Church. If you would like more detailed reports, please contact our Business Manager, Susan Mello at susan.mello@rslcs.org.

Did you know?

You Can Use Qualified Charitable Distributions (QCDs) to Satisfy Required Minimum Distributions (RMDs)

If you are age 70½ or older, IRS rules require you to take required minimum distributions (RMDs) each year from your tax-deferred retirement accounts. This additional taxable income may push you into a higher tax bracket and may also reduce your eligibility for certain tax credits and deductions. To eliminate or reduce the impact of RMD income, you may donate to Risen Savior or any other qualified non-profit using a qualified charitable distribution (QCD). Please contact Susan Mello, our Business Manager, for more details at susan.mello@rslcs.org or by calling her at 480.577.3296.
